

CREEKROCK

This modified version of the WaterRock takes the sleek modern aesthetic and expands the footprint of the home. The main floor has 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, with designs for an optional walk-out basement featuring another bed and bath, making it perfect for families, with extra room for when guests come to visit.

The patio outside, for enjoying the picturesque mountain views, can be adapted into an elegant double-decked design when a walk-out basement is available. The single-pitch roof has also been lowered to create a more cozy feeling in the great room, where the family and friends can gather to watch snowfall through the floor-to-ceiling windows, next to the woodstove, with a hot cup of cocoa in hand.

LAURELCREEK

The LaurelCreek is the ultimate age-in-place design with two bedrooms and two and a half baths spread across 2,444 square feet. The timber frame design of the home incorporates graceful curves that add a sense of elegance to the overall aesthetic. The large gable embellishments with brackets further enhance the visual appeal of the home.

One of the standout features of LaurelCreek is the dining deck, which includes a timber pergola and is perfect for hosting large gatherings and enjoying outdoor living. The home also includes functional support spaces such as an office, mudroom connector, and an optional three-car garage.

MADISON

The Madison invites you in with a large and elegant timber-framed covered porch, that leads to a convenient 3 bedroom and 2-bathroom layout in a 1,582 sq ft package, perfect for a family. With this open design, the living room, dining room, and kitchen all merge into one, forming a spacious great room. The surrounding windows let in all the natural light and views that you need. After a well-cooked meal, head out to the wrap-around patio for some good time with friends and family, or enjoy the warmth from the modern hanging fireplace. Once the night comes to an end, head up to the loft where you'll find the primary bedroom featuring 2 spacious walk-in closets, lofted timber frame ceilings, and the primary bathroom right around the corner. On the main floor, the other 2 bedrooms are split with a bathroom perfectly sized for sharing.
